NEW OVERLAND RAILROADS.

Five Routes From the East to California.

Montana Correspondence N. Y. Tribune.

It is generally believed in this Territory and in Idaho that the Utah and Northern Railroad will be built next spring down the valley of the Snake River from some point on the present line in Idaho, to the Columbia River, and that the Union Pacific Company will thus secure an independent line to the Pacific and enter into direct competition with the Northern Pacific. A party of engineers is now examining the route, and if satisfactory arrangements can be made to obtain the requisite funds, the line could be pushed through very rapidly. Do the people in the east know that during the present year no less than THREE GREAT LINES OF RAILWAY are being built to connect the Missouri River with the Pacific Ocean? In Dakota the Northern Pacific Company is pushing its road west from Bismarck. The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe road is near the New Mexico line, if, indeed, it has not already crossed it, and is aiming for the Gulf of California. The Southern Pacific is extending eastward through Arizona, and, although it will be intersected by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe line, each contemplates a separate road from the Pacific to the east. If we count the Utah and Northern as a Pacific line, as I believe it is bound to be, the day is not far distant when the tourist will have a choice of five routes to California and Oregon.

The Jews as Farmers.

Meyer Stern has written from a small town of Germany on the subject of Jewish agricultural colonies, giving some pertinent information gathered by him on his travels. In Russia he says that many villages have been laid out especially for Jews who follow agriculture, and that for seventy years they have there conducted farming successfully and contentedly, the men tilling the soil and raising the crops, and the women taking care of the cattle. An eminent rabbi of Buda-Pesth informed Mr. Stern that thousands of Jews are farmers in Hungary, and that there are thick settlements of them in Marmaros, Beregha, Constantia, and the region of Ugozsa, some being quite wealthy, and all making honorable livelihoods. They are very religious, and strictly keep their Sabbath and all holidays. They are also orderly citizens and prompt taxpayers.

Glass Sleepers and Paper Wheels.

From the New York Sun.

The use of paper as material for tires and also for the wheels of railroad cars, where something very stout is required, now has become an old story; but some of the marvels first excited may well be transferred to a new use of glass for the sleepers of railroad tracks. As a fact, glass, toughened under the recent processes, is used at Stratford, England, for railroad sleepers, the upper side being grooved to hold the rail. These sleepers are cheap and certain not to rot. We sometimes fancy the surprise of our great-grandfathers, in coming to life again from the stage-coach era, to find the earth grided with tracks for steam locomotion. We need not go so far back—we need only imagine the wonder of a more recently bygone generation at finding rowboats and car wheels made of paper, and railway ties made of glass.

Emma Patterson's Love of Finery.

Emma Patterson was the daughter of a poor man at Bethalto, Ill., and nearly all of her associates were in good circumstances financially. Her good looks and intelligence made her a favorite, and the attention that she received led her into vanity. John Shelton was one of her suitors. He left a watch and $180 dollars with her while he went on a short journey. On his return she made trivial apologies for not giving them back. He learned one day that she had engaged herself to marry Mr. Montgomery, and her peremptory demands for her property. She had spent the money, dollar for dollar, in buying bits of finery, and as she could get no help from her father, she was unable to repay Shelton, who threatened her arrest. She went to St. Louis, and tried to get employment, but failed, and committed suicide.

Wanted to Marry a Dying Man.

A French woman went to Guy's Hospital, London, and offered a round sum for the privilege of marrying a dying man. She is Elodie de Panard, a descendant of Berner's, famous rival in lyric poetry. She was left a fortune of $30,000 by her uncle, a baker on one of the less fashionable boulevards. The money will not be hers until she marries, and as no eligible young man appears, she has been driven to the expedient of marrying a dying man. To that end her friends have applied at several Paris hospitals, but the authorities would not listen to such a desecrated mockery. The case was then presented to Mr. Utthoff, surgeon at Guy's, who was informed that if the dying man was a widower with children, they would be provided for. The offer was refused.

The Rev. Jacob B. Renforth, a Baptist pastor at Lawndale, Ill., is under arrest for bootlegging.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

In a Paris circus, a trained horse draws a sledge, while a second sits in it, and two others go behind, their fore feet resting on the back seat, as lackeys.

Woodbury S. Pennell thus advertises in Portland, Me.: "Any man or woman selling me one drop of intoxicating liquor on or after this date, I will prosecute to the extent of the law."

The munificence of the Duke of Norfolk as a Catholic is wonderful. It is calculated that within the past ten years he has applied over a million dollars to his religion. He has just undertaken to defray the cost of a new church at Sheffield, and is about to build another at the east end of London.

A Yankee and a Mexican disputed at Big Springs, Neb., as to their skill as marksmen. "What can you do with that rifle of yours?" the Yankee sneeringly asked. "I can shoot the stone out of that pin in your breast," the Mexican retorted, and did it, incidentally inflicting a mortal wound. Even in plodding Holland public men enjoying unlimited confidence sometimes turn out defaulters. This has been the case with Dirk Mul, banker, of Winschoten; but the Dutch do not yet take such things coolly, and all Mul's windows were smashed, and his brother, a goldsmith, underwent the vicarious sacrifice of having his store sacked.

The present theatrical wonder of Paris is "The Black Venus," a play representing the adventures of a traveler in Africa. The quantity and gorgeousness of the costumes and scenery are unprecedented on the stage; but the most striking feature is a caravan, in which more than a hundred African beasts, from the zebra to the elephant, are introduced.

John Seigle was driving home from Salem, Minn. A highwayman jumped into the wagon from the rear, pointed a pistol, and said: "Up with your arms." Seigle held up his arms obediently, but simultaneously kicked out with all his might, hitting the robber in the stomach, and tumbling him heels over head to the ground, where he lay insensible until the farmer escaped.

Mrs. Davis sold her dwarfed sons to a showman, in Knox county, Ohio, twenty-seven years ago, and has seen them only once since. On that occasion, having repented of the bargain, she went with a Sheriff to recover them; but the showman tucked them under his arms and fled to the woods. They are particularly wanted at home just now to look after some property that has been left for them.

It is many years since heavy members of the Jockey Club donned boots and breeches, and tried conclusions with each other in the saddle over the Beacon and Pound courses at Newmarket, England. Matches took place in which amateur riders carried fifteen or sixteen stone, and on one occasion Tommy Panten undertook to ride his own horse against Mr. Wastell, the weight carried by each being twenty-five stone.

A double-headed steel rail was recently exhibited by the Western Railway Company of France, which is certified to have been in use for eighteen years, during which time 256,000 trains have passed over it. It has been used only on one side, and is not half worn away. The average age of life of an iron rail is given as about seven years, and as a prominent railroad manager said recently, there are now few railroads which can afford to use them.

George Iber, a brakeman on the Connerville branch of the Central railroad in Connecticut is regarded as the strongest man in that state. He can lift a heavy freighting truck by simply taking hold of the handles, and is said to have lifted twelve hundred pounds. Since he has been on the road he has broken two brake chains, and when he puts on a brake two men can with difficulty loosen it.

Dr. Mintie's Nephreticium. Dr. Mintie's Nephreticium was wonderful. In all cases of Dropsy, Bright's Disease, Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Complaints, or Retention of Urine, these troubles are entirely cured by the Nephreticium. Female Weakness, Gravel, Diabetes, pain in the back and loin are cured when all other medicines have failed.

See what the Druggists of Portland and San Francisco say about Dr. Mintie's Nephreticium and English Dandelion Pills: "We have sold a large amount of Dr. Mintie's medicine; the English Dandelion Pills; also the Nephreticium, and in all cases they are highly spoken of and give entire satisfaction."

John A. Childs, Druggist, Second street, Portland. H. Woodward & Co., Druggists, corner First and Alder street, Portland. Messrs. Abrams & Carroll, wholesale Druggists, Nos. 2 and 4 Front street, San Francisco, say: "We regard Nephreticium as the best Kidney and Bladder remedy before the public. All Druggists keep these medicines. For all derangements of the Liver, Use Dr. Mintie's English Dandelion Pills. For Biliousness and Dyspepsia, Use Dr. Mintie's English Dandelion Pills. Every family should keep the English Dandelion Pills on hand before the public. Dr. Mintie's Remedies will not 'Cure all Complaints,' but will, if taken according to directions, give immediate relief and perfect a cure in all troubles for which they are recommended." J. A. Childs, Druggist, Second street, Portland. J. A. Childs, Druggist, Second street, Portland.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a recipe that will cure you. FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. Inman, Station D, New York City.

THE SCHEME UNFOLDING.

A St. Louis telegram dated last Saturday, says:

A private circular has been issued here by the Trades Assembly, and sent to all the assemblies in the United States and British North America, setting forth a project for a general strike of all trades, the time to be determined by the trades assemblies, and to take united action for the adoption and enforcement of the eight hour law, abolition of the truck system and child labor. They also propose to organize unions of all trades not now organized, and to appoint an Agitation Committee to carry out the purposes of the Assembly.

The Gazette recently contained an account of the organization and objects of the telegraphers' society, which is probably a branch of the above. The information was obtained from reliable sources and is probably correct.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The officers of the United States land offices throughout the country have received strict instructions to prosecute all violations of the laws relative to cutting of timber on Government lands. Secretary Schurz is especially determined to protect the young timber. The law regarding the cutting of small timber may not be generally known. We quote from section 2461 of the Revised Statutes, as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to cut or remove, or cause to be cut or removed, from any of the mineral lands of the United States any timber or undergrowth of any kind whatsoever less than eight inches in diameter, and any person so offending shall be liable to be fined in any sum not exceeding $500, and to which may be added imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months."

It will be a calamity to this country, and more than a calamity to the craftsmen themselves, if bad advisers induce a general strike of the telegraph operators. We have information which goes to show that the grinding process used by the Western Union Telegraph Company is producing great discontent all over the East particularly, but we hope some means may be found to secure a fair rate of wages without a strike. There is great uncertainty about a strike bringing wages up. The only way to do that is to have an opposition company, and there seems to be some doubts about getting that. A dispatch from Buffalo recently said that all the differences between the rival companies had been adjusted, and they would work together as one hereafter.

There are several narrow bridges in town, some with railings and some without, which are none too safe for skittish horses at any time, and the bill posters are rendering some of them still worse by sticking flaming red posters on them alongside the roadway. This infringement is out of place, and should not be permitted where there are so many lady drivers.

The winds are assuming their wintry temperature and velocity, and still there are stovepipes protruding through wooden roofs, and the property of the law abiding is endangered through the negligence of the law breakers.

In the Hymer case at Winnemucca it was believed that the case would go to the jury on Saturday night. The general opinion was that the only question for the jury to decide upon was the degree of the prisoner's guilt.

"Hen fruit" may seem to some persons merely a vulgar expression—nothing more. But it must be witty, for most of the witty papers of the coast use the term frequently. But the wit in the phrase is deep—very deep.

CHAMPAGNE POWDER! Messrs. James S. Taylor & Co., 116 Front Street, San Francisco, Cal. We are using your Champagne Baking Powder, and with-out hesitation we pronounce it perfection. OFFICE OF THOMAS PRICE, Sacramento Street, SAN FRANCISCO, May 3d, 1917.

Respectfully submitted, THOMAS PRICE, Assayer and Chemist.

INTERNATIONAL HOTEL. Messrs. James S. Taylor & Co., 116 Front St., San Francisco—GENTS: I can make better results with one teaspoonful to a quart of flour with your Champagne Yeast Powder than with three teaspoonfuls of any other I have ever used.
